DISCLAIMER

I hereby confirm that I understand that mountain biking can be a dangerous sport, and that I will not be guided by a 'ride leader' during club rides. I understand that the club rides simply consist of a group of individuals, who are each taking responsibility for their own safety, who have collectively decided to follow a mountain biking route together as peers. I agree that we shall all take care of each other during the rides, and that there is no implication that any one of us has any greater or lesser duty of care to the others in the group.
